The Full Wellington (the two-piece boot), and its several variations, are a signature style for Frommer Boots. At one time this style was considered the most extravagant and most elegant boot that could be made. It is still considered the most difficult to execute. The FW was the Civil War Calvary officers' boot and the original cowboy boot. We offer this boot in a limited choice of select leathers and colours. Prices start at $1850.00. Additional information upon request.
